

Meaningless

Whirr

Patience is overdue
My mouth has caught up with you
Your tone hides regret, yet you won't say it
Do you even know yourself like I do?

A normal view for me and you is upside down, oh, it's true
So confused
Plain and dull, dark and grey, no words to say, oh, it's true
I don't see you

How could I be so blind to love?
Can you even live with yourself?
You're such a selfish soul
You're wretched and your heart is cold
You'll never find my love again
Your life is meaningless
Yet you don't know this
Do you even love yourself like I do?

A normal view for me and you is upside down, oh, it's true
So confused
Plain and dull, dark and grey, no words to say, oh, it's true
I don't see you
