

Raw Blue

Whirr

I'm watching you dive
Down with me
As much as autumn's fallen leaves
You're everywhere
Piled on me
You're rustling in so deep

I'm watching you rain over me
As much as the blue in the sea
Your endless ways over me
Keep crashing into me

While you were out sleeping
I stayed inside dreaming
Of what we could be
Cause you're always
The raw blue in my mind
You wave over me
Cause you're always

You are the raw blue
Color me
You're deep in my soul
Thorn in me
I'll give you the world
Give me grief
Keep waving over me

Show you my fears
Confessing
Drowning
Depressing
You wave over me
