

Tya

Whiskey Myers

She's as cold as ice, When her true colors show
You know it feels kinda' nice when the truth won't let go
It makes me think twice every time you come for more
I keep hearing the same thing You're gonna head out that door

But you tuck your tail and run away
High steppin' just so you don't have to stay
I can't be here once it's dead now
If you think about leavin' go and TYA

Yeah your lies are cheap, they cut down to the bone
Yeah my wounds are deep even though no scars are shown
I won't lose any sleep if I wake up and you're gone

But you tuck your tail and run away
High steppin' just so you don't have to stay

I can't be here once it's dead now baby
If you think about leavin' go and TYA
If you think about leavin' go and TYA
Go and TYA

I used to call you my baby but not for long
Some people say that I'm crazy
Go about things all wrong
Said but you'll be a waiting for long

But you tuck your tail and run away
High steppin' just so you don't have to stay
Don't have to stay
I can't be here once it's dead now baby
If you think about leavin'
If you think about leavin' TYA
Think about leavin go and TYA go TYA

Bye bye little momma. TYA
