

Bounce Back

White Denim

This says a man who has nice things
That says a man with a sense of belonging
Greasy grass to the Joshua Tree
Ear the dial tone, moan, scream
Can't explain away your pain
But you'll find new places to lay your blame
Over and over and over again

Fall out, bounce back
Keep on waiting or you could react
Are you running away?
Are you hearing and feeling what you say?

Purist fitness you could almost kiss
Miss material witness, success is business

This says a man in disbelief
That says a man paralyzed by longing
Long last, you got what you need
Ticking time bomb dream scheme
Got out your head and back into bed
Nobody hears what you're saying
Over and over and over again