

Second Dimension

White Denim

When I get lost
I can find myself
In a second dimension
(Dimension)
Oh my eyes see
On your pages I read
My own intention
(Intention)
We alone experience these Touchy feelings loneliness brings
With its division
(Division)
But when I get lost
I can always find a self
In the second dimension
(Dimension)

I'm lookin' forward
To some answers
To questions
That I've been askin' you for so long
I'm lookin' forward
To understanding
My heart
In a world that's often so wrong

Can you read my mind
(Then you know I swam down to the bottom of my nature)
Is there any more time
(Because I left behind a thousand things in need of change)

It's nice outside
And I don't want to hide
My apprehension
(Apprehension)
I know imperfectly
I know we're impermanent beings
This is submission
(Submission)

I'm lookin' forward
To some answers
To questions
That I've been askin' you for so long
I'm lookin' forward
To understanding
My heart
In a world that's often so wrong

Can you read my mind
(I swam down to the bottom of my nature)
Is there any more time
(I left behind a thousand things in need of change)

I'm asking you why
(Can I find it in myself to deny self and self construction)

It's my time
(Self and self construction)
I, I
(Self and self construction)
It's my mind
(Self and self construction)
