

Sky Beaming

White Denim

It's cold out, freezing
Stressing, relieving
Your impression, my reason
(I only just stand in place)
You're progressive, I'm leaning
(I guessing we could run in place)

Do you figure out when you think about it
Are you alone or the last one
Do you live with, do you live without it
Let it be, the flash is on automatic

We made a feeling
Over 16 seasons
Two zeroes, sky beaming
(I wish I had more time to waste)
Old hero, close ceiling
(I'm looking for a dream to chase)

Do you figure out when you think about it
Are you alone or the last one
Do you live with, do you live without it
Let it be, the flash is on automatic
