

Find A Way

White Heart

Welcome to my mind, please don't be unkind,
God knows what you'll find, 'cause what I'm feeling isn't clear,
Lately, it's been hard living here,
Every day's the same; maybe I'm to blame,
Am I too afraid to change, too afraid to dream anymore?
I just don't know what I am fighting for.

Gotta find a way, find a way,
Find a way to love,
Find a way, find a way,
Find a way to love.

Pain is close to numb, numb is close to fear, and what
I'm feeling here,
I know that everyone's been burned, but it isn't everybody who will learn,
Tired of this place and my martyr face,
Love's my saving grace,
It's been too long since I've been free,
Only you can take this cup from me.

Find a way, find a way,
Find a way to love,
Find a way, find a way,
Find a way to love,
Find a way, find a way,
Find a way to love.

It's been so long since I've been free,
Only you can take this cup from me.

Find a way, find a way,
Find a way to love,
Find a way, find a way,
Find a way to love,
Find a way, find a way,
Find a way to love,
Find a way, find a way,
Find a way to love,
Find a way, find a way,
Find a way to love,
Find a way, find a way,
Find a way to love.

Oh, you've got to find a way,
I still believe, still believe.
