

Keep Up

White Lies

Please
I want you to be here right now
Grief
Has fallen with the leaves downtown

I can't stop this shaky rhythm
I am not your beat
You can't tie me in a ribbon
I'm just trying to

Keep up, keep up, keep up, keep up, oh
Don't block my rhythm again
Keep up, keep up, keep up, keep up, oh
Don't block my rhythm again
Keep up, keep up, keep up, keep up, oh
Don't block my rhythm again
Keep up, keep up, keep up, keep up, oh
Don't block my rhythm again

Please
I want to beat the fear right now

I'm all broken into bitties
Sweep me off my knees
Nightmares kicking all the kiddies
I'm just trying to

Keep up, keep up, keep up, keep up, oh
Don't block my rhythm again
Keep up, keep up, keep up, keep up, oh
Don't block my rhythm again
Keep up, keep up, keep up, keep up, oh
Don't block my rhythm again
Keep up, keep up, keep up, keep up, oh
Don't block my rhythm again

I don't wanna take all the night to get sober
And listen to you banging on, listen to you banging on
I don't wanna fake, but this is over
Go take the candy home, take the candy home
All you've done is scream at the sky this October
It's sick of all your banging on, sick of all your banging on Trying not to shake, but this is over
Break the family home, oh break the family home
