

Tokyo

White Lies

Go breathe it out
Walk your walk
Come back when you're ready to talk
But heart ringing, take the call
Our life is in print to play
Flip the set if it's starting to fray
If there's nothing new to crave

Cos you know
That every city has a Chinatown

Call Tokyo, call New York
It's just same but different, love
Call Jupiter, call Lyon
Find a right, and find a wrong

Write back, or lust write it off
Hasn't everybody suffered enough
With the carcass left of us?
Your every-unhappy cruise
Oh. you've never looked good in blue
And I'm the sunset, I'm the view

'Cos we know
That every city has a Chinatown

Call Tokyo, call New York
It's just same but different, love
Call Jupiter, call Lyon
Find a right, and find a wrong

Get me London, get me Seoul
Say it's me who's calling
Girl, I'm lower than a dog
And my ego's falling
Get me Bangkok, get me Rome
Where all the hope is hiding
Just know I'm numb and, I'm alone
So come back to me crying

Call Tokyo, call New York
It's just same but different, love
Call Jupiter, call Lyon
Find a right, and find a wrong
