

People look and people talk to me, it's the same
And they're electric and they're golden
But they're playing a game
Sitting in a stone throne
A crack in their eyes
I'm colored red and white, you're screaming Jesus in vain
I'm walking in a bed of roses, tripping onto a plane
Sitting in a stone throne
You know I'm alright

Don't wait for me now
You won't wait for me now
You wanna cry babe?
What makes you so sure?
What fun is life babe, unless it's too short?

I can't listen to you this time
But candy, candy, don't cry
You know you're alright
Don't wait for me now girl, I swear to God

People look and people talk to me, it's the same
And they're electric and they're golden
But they're playing a game
Sitting in a stone throne
A crack in their eyes
I'm colored red and white, you're screaming Jesus in vain
I'm walking in a bed of roses, tripping onto a plane
Sitting in a stone throne
You know I'm alright

Don't wait for me now
You won't wait for me now
You wanna cry babe?
What makes you so sure?
What fun is life babe, unless it's too short?

But candy, candy, don't cry
You know you're alright
