

Hard Luck

White Reaper

Two years on your lonesome
Another two in a cell
Now we're four years down, have you changed?
Well, you can't really tell
And don't it feel like you're laughing?
And it's all you can do
It was strange how it changed into dying for love and you lose

Yeah, you got beatdown baby, by a cheapskate
Now you can't look back, now you can't think straight
Go on and try
Still screaming at the raindrops, "hard luck turns us all blue"
(Yeah you gotta realize) I'm only here for you

So we went and threw it all into a little ditch
Tired of the game, we were tryna get rich
Yeah, well, you know, they only wanna see smiling faces anymore

Sayin' "I don't wanna get mixed up"
But you got tossed in, now you need fixed-up
Go on and try
Still screaming at the raindrops, "hard luck turns us all blue"
(Yeah you gotta realize) I'm only here for you
For you

Felt like we could fake it
That's when backbone took the stage
And we had to act like we wanted danger
Now we're strangers
Strangers

Hard luck turns us all blue

Still screaming at the raindrops, "hard luck turns us all blue"
(Yeah you gotta realize) I'm only here for you

Still screaming at the raindrops, "hard luck turns us all blue"
(Yeah you gotta realize, honey)
Yeah, I'm only here for you
