

Last Navigator

White Skull

Riding in time we move in the space Navigator of stars and inter-space Builder of giant constructions over mother earth Eternal gate is the holy door

Air, water and mother earth are good for landing over All men are your slaves to build your colony, to live From unknown you've come here and people fear you Like a god you start to talk with the ancient man You start to build your colony like a fantastic summer place You arrive and you go by the eternal gate

You're flyingover human

Chorus
Where are you? Where is Rah?
You've vanished somewhere Tell me to crack the code

Two dimensions and two earths connected by a fantastic door No human can use the door, it is only for the king Pyramids are your tomb, you're living like a god
The last king rest in pain no more aliens in through the door
