

Back to the Wind

Whitney

Back to the wind, I feel so strong
No reflection in the glass, babe, I'm gone
Tragic, the way I used to dwell
Through it all, I hope you stay well

Maybe there's no edge of the knife
Maybe there's an end to the tears we've cried

People change, it's okay, nothing's wrong
We knew it all along
We knew it all along

Swept in the wind, I'm turning round
Floating through a crowded street upside down
There's hope in the city 'round this time
I can show you what it looks like

Diamonds on the edge of a knife
Diving at the ledge through the waves with my

Fear of change, it's okay, nothing's wrong
We knew it all along
We knew it all along

People change, I'm okay, nothing's wrong
I knew it all along
I knew it all along
