

COUNTY LINES

Whitney

After all
It might be over now
Hardly willing to believe you're not around
But how could I forget
When you turned your back and said
Nothing more

Heaven knows
You and I
Only tore ourselves apart
Even those
County lines
Couldn't keep you in my arms

Rise and fall
Every lonely hour spent
I've known heartbreak
From the time I was your man
And how could I forget
There was nothing left to give
Anymore

Heaven knows
You and I
Only tore ourselves apart
Leaving those county lines

Heaven knows
You and I
Only tore ourselves apart
Even those
County lines
Couldn't keep you in my arms
