

Crying, Laughing, Loving, Lying

Whitney

Crying, crying never did nobody no good no how
That's why I, I don't cry
That's why I, I don't cry

Laughing, laughing sometimes does somebody some good somehow
That's why I, I'm laughing now
That's why I, I'm laughing now

Loving, loving never did me no good no how, no how
That's why I can't love you now
That's why I can't love you now

Lying, lying never did nobody no good no how, no how
So why am I lying now?
So why am I lying now?
So why am I lying now?
