

Rainbows & Ridges

Whitney

Rainbows and ridges, and rhymers and rhymes
Lovers and music all have their times
Someone gets started and someone resigns

Interstate highways and buses and planes
Will only take horses down memory lanes
If everything passes, what past will remain?

Some days you win and some days you lose
A chair got knocked over, I got the blues
Some don't get any and some get to choose

Rainbows and ridges, and Rhymers and rhymes
Lovers and music all have their time
Someone gets started and someone resigns
