

Brand New

WHY?

You watch Bachelorette in bed, while
I smoke about the exile
It's true, I had my chakra two boom, boo
When I was young and in bloom

But is this all I am now
Your old best pal's high school pet sounds?
I'm not dead, I'll jar the lightening in my head yet
If I can get out of bed

So just tell me what the work is
Or have I outlived my purpose?
And are you just a witness
Or are you the well I fell into?

Please, God, someone tell me what to do
I need to be brand new

Now I'm a stranger in this strange land
And you've been vanishing all weekend
I just pray it's part of God's plan
'Cause I don't really know where it's leading

Please tell me what the work is
Or have I outlived my purpose?
And are you just a witness
Or are you the well I fell into?

Please, God, someone tell me what to do
I need to be brand new

I'll find my way through back to you
But right now I need to be brand new Jeez, is it me, do I fight or flee? I do
But I need to be brand new
Is it me, do I fight or flee? I do
But I need to be brand new

Please, God, someone tell me what to do
