Vice Principal

WHY?

You can do anything
Cause you're still falling you ain't found your calling
You can do anything at all
So why you getting high on my research so high
We're lucky he doesn't want to serve a second term
Cause they'll have the heart to tell him
He sucks as an 8th grade vice principal
This time I'm the vampire
I'll sink my teeth into your neck
I think you know what to expect
You'll be bleeding rubber checks
