

What's Me?

WHY?

If I am the one to bring you down Jonathan
It might happen on a dimly lit access road
If I am the one to bring you down my friend
It's nothing personal, I'm the one who needs you most

It seems very unlikely that the will below
The will below, the will below, the will will be
Seems more likely that the impulse to pursue
The pleasure purely for the pleasure will lead

What's me?
What's me?

If I am the one to bring you down
In that tiny Indiana town
Parked in front a haunted house
Midnight or there about

With a girl in a tiara crown
In her mama's old wedding gown
Met her at a gentlemen's lounge
Taste her still on your mouth

When the siren scares you inside out
Talking shit, you start to shout
As the cop toss you to the ground
Please go easy now
Jonnie, go easy now

Seems very unlikely that the will below
The will below, the will below, the will will be
Seems more likely that the impulse to pursue
The pleasure purely for the pleasure will lead

What's me?
What's me?
