

Hell Version (Reprise)

Wicca Phase Springs Eternal

My baby breathes an icy kind of way
Saw you in a picture like a model
I've been so caught up in a darker kind of living
Call it hot or nothing
Grab me by the legs then pull myself over
My name is [?]
You freeze on like connected to computer
Call it hot or nothing till the lights stack up
My crystal body travels how it wants
Find me in the blackest corner cryin'
My ice melts there
Coldest Saturn snare
Hate the way I feel inside
I've been so elusive in the night
Shallow types of vacancies take away my night
Why I'm so destructive to your light
I need ya
Hardest kind of living
The way your body's snaking to the rhythm
The cloud feels different when you're in it
I remember systems separated
My ego still carries me away

I control everything I'm the darkest prince
Everything inside you makes me wanna melt
I'm certain of my harsher kind of phase
Baby your connection's undivided

Hellversion is the darkest kind of phase
Guillotine choke with the knuckles on your throat
My name is [?]
The cloud feels different when you're in it
I used to see black lights covering my eyes
And then I'm in
I saw the body comin' out the shower
I didn't say nothing, [?]
I need you so much
Like everything was taken from a drive
Hallucinate the black [?]
My baby breathes an icy kind of way
My baby breathes an icy kind of way

Caught up in a new beginning
Blank out my expression for ya
Start my three computers daily
Heat the triple body sauna
