

Goth town girls all know how to act
I'm so handsome 'cause I work out to the max
GothBoiClique in the club in the back
Bodies in the basement while were countin' up stacks
Three computers and I'm on the internet
And I'm on the internet
I felt your heart one time
You still call me your man
I saw you lookin' so good...

Bloody tears fallin' down on my sweater
You never wrote back to my love letters
And the rain won't make me feel better
Now it's winter forever
Ice age in my heart
Life lived in the dark
Out here on my own
Why'd you leave me alone
If you only knew
How much I need you
Then you'd still be here
But you've disappeared
