

Moving Without Movement

Wicca Phase Springs Eternal

I know it doesn't seem to hurt a lot
I assure you I'm in pain
I can feel the wind it whispers rolling in
It's a late one
I'll welcome you in baby

To the max and to the core
I'd invite you in to stay
On hallowed ground I'd stand around
And you'd haunt me
And I wouldn't mind it, oh

I think about it in bed
I'd travel to you and back
I'd turn the future to past
I wanna give you it all
I want this moment so bad
Want it to linger and last

One heart one soul
Body and mind control

I'm living underneath a spell
You know how to make it right
I'm moving without movement
Where are you tonight
I'm living underneath a spell
You know how to make it right

I imagine where you'd put my hand
I'm watching how this all unfolds
I wonder if the way you hesitate
Is why I do the same
There's a promise that I made desire, baby
It involves you
You'll never hear me say it

I tempt fate
A black cat
Are the eyes looking back at me yours
I think about you on the way there
Baby when I get there I think of you more

Rain starts to fall
I wait for you to call
I know what I'd do
The taurus, my moon
Tells me that you're the one

Take me down the path untamed
I can pick you up this time
I'm casting beyond casting
I'm passing through tonight

Tonight I'm gonna stay up late
I'll be with you on the ride
If you wanna be bad baby

If you wanna live your life

I'm living underneath a spell
I'm moving without movement
I'm living underneath a spell
I'm moving without movement...
