

Stop Torturing Me

Wicca Phase Springs Eternal

First time in a while

First time in a while that I haven't been bored
First time in a while, I've been able to record
(First time in a while) In bated breath, I would open up the door
When you were cold I made sure you were alive
First time in a while that I haven't been online
First time in a while, I took you by surprise
(First time in a while) You took in all of it, that's what I like
There's a person I forgot about, it happens all the time

Can you feel it deeper, wrapped around your spine?
To you then back to me, there's a secret we both keep
I was passionately on about it, know that you won't leave
You are you and I am me, 2017
You are you and I am me

First time in a while
GothBoiClique

First time in a while that I haven't been bored
First time in a while, first time in a while

I feel somehow I'm connected
I feel you for real and how you're so selective
Baby, don't push away, I said from the beginnin'
If I knock real slow, will you answer? No
I feel there's a separation
I'm not who I was in 2011
But I stay attuned to what you're really after Does your heart beat slow when I call you? No
