

Surrender

Wicca Phase Springs Eternal

Let me cast the spell
Let me make this change
One hand on the other
We can be the same
Let things fall apart
Build them up again
It's me to you, I tether
There never is an end

Then you say how much does it really mean?
Can I feel your touch through a TV screen?
Is this real love or just pretending?
Nights like this are never ending
You can call me back on your telephone
When you're dressed in black and you're all alone
Hope you find your way right into my arms
Need you by my side baby we've come so far

Yeah we've come so far
We've come so far
I need you in my arms
Yeah we've come so far
I need you in my arms
I need you in my arms
I need you in my arms
I need you in my arms

I move forward and back in time, I swear
This time you're at the center
One life in a single breath
And it's all, so deep this time together
One rhythm never changing
One sea in patterned motion
One heart to you surrendered, I swear
This time I'll last forever

Oh, how many times can we fall apart?
And put the pieces back together
You're the only light when it all goes dark
My only guide, a sacred treasure

But I'm so tired of playing the fool for you (I'm so tired)
And I'm so tired of being so cruel
(I'm so tired)
But now that I've found you
But now that I've found you
I wanna show you all I've learned
Now that I found you
Now that I found you
I wanna show you how I burn

Then you say how much does it really mean?
Can I feel your touch through a TV screen?
Is this real love or just pretending?
Nights like this are never ending
You can call me back on your telephone
When you're dressed in black and you're all alone
