

Tonight I'm In Love On My Own

Wicca Phase Springs Eternal

Cast away, beam of light
Wax, wane, be my guide
That's the way, alleluia
That's the way I find it
Cast away, beam of light
Wax, wane, be my guide
That's the way, alleluia
That's the way we're flying

Cast away, beam of light
Wax, wane, be my guide
That's the way, alleluia
That's the way I find it
Cast away, beam of light
Wax, wane, be my guide
That's the way, alleluia
That's the way we're flying

Cast away, beam of light
Wax, wane, be my guide
That's the way, alleluia
That's the way I find it
Cast away, beam of light
Wax, wane, be my guide
That's the way, alleluia
That's the way we're flying

Lost innocence, I'm back to me, I'm better
I'm free to move where I feel to move
The ambiance, the air that I'm after
Is cryptic, it's mystic, it's true
Cool breeze, be a calming endorsement
I say to the night, see you soon
It's for you I find myself waiting
The messages, they're all sent for you

It's Friday, there's lightning above it the moon's out, I'm home and it's late
I'm ten miles outside the city, my only companion the rain
The sound of the trees through my window is calming and calls out my name
The wolf's cry at midnight is here to remind me
Where what's real's uncertain is where you will find me

I'm after the end and after what's known as the end
I'm here in the night, of the night, and tonight it knows me as a friend
I'm down by the water in Sullivan county in autumn again
If I could hold time in my hands
Some moments I'd never let go...
A feeling I can't understand...
Tonight I'm in love on my own

She's rising like the host from the horizon
I'm writing out a letter or a prayer
Her light is all-enveloping, inviting
A trembling pen to leave it in her care
The summer melts into a pool of memory
I've poured it out beneath the south window

The river's on my pilgrimage already
And as it runs I sink my body low
To kneel in the sand
My fear will not here still my hand
And seeking Sedona, let my spirit float up above these lowlands

Cast away, beam of light
Wax, wane, be my guide
That's the way, alleluia
That's the way I find it
Wax, wane, be my guide
That's the way, alleluia
That's the way we're flying

Cast away, beam of light
Wax, wane, be my guide
That's the way, alleluia
That's the way I find it
Wax, wane, be my guide
That's the way, alleluia
That's the way we're flying

Cast away, beam of light
Wax, wane, be my guide
That's the way, alleluia
That's the way I find it
Wax, wane, be my guide
That's the way, alleluia
