

Companion

Wide Mouth Mason

When I saw the reflection of the sky
In the pools of water we drove by
In the ditch on the side of the road
On the way to the bridge where looking down just right
Oh it felt like we were moving

Then I caught the waves wrinkle the moon
And they kissed my body just beyond the shore
I talked you into a stone and skipped you across the water
But it was me who was really sinking

Lay me down
Down on the bottom
Come crashing over me
You'll be a dancer as I walk beside you

Then I saw the buildings leaning in
To touch heads where the yellow lines run
Looking down on the fool slowly walking
What did he feel like he was proving

Lay me down
Down on the bottom
Come crashing over me
You'll be dancer as I try to catch you
