

Airplane

Widespread Panic

Sitting around, waiting for an airplane
Don't know how to fly
That's ok
I got me a pilot, she's going my way
She's got wings, she's got wings...

Sitting around, waiting for the mailman
Don't know how he could be so slow
My good friend said, she wrote me a letter
Must have been a year ago

Well, I got a feeling
That I'll soon be leaving home

Sitting around, watching the rain fall
I don't know how it could rain so long
See the ocean, she is a woman
Waits for her man, to come home

Well, I got a feeling
That I'll soon be leaving home
Home

Well, I got a feeling
That I'll soon be leaving home
Well, I got a feeling
That I'll soon be leaving home
Well, I got a feeling
That I'll soon be leaving home
Well, I got a feeling
That I'll soon be leaving home
Well, I got a feeling
That I'll soon be leaving home

Sitting around, waiting for an airplane
Don't know how to fly
That's ok
Got me a pilot, she's going my way
She's got wings, she's got wings

She's got wings, she's got wings
She's got wings, she's got wings
