

Blue Carousel

Widespread Panic

Eyes out the window, face in the breeze
Got your head in the clouds
Cat sound asleep on the goodwill couch
Dogs running wild in the yard
Just another day

Got one life in black and white
There's no place like home
Got another in Technicolor
So back down the road I go
Just another day

There's a sunrise in the distance
And it's all coming back to me now
I hear voices from the dog house
Hey cat what's it all about
Love and joy

Roll up my sleeves come and look for yourself
There's nothing here to see
Hold out your hands show me your palms
It says your lifeline will bring
Love and joy

Arm out the window along for this ride
Drive me away from the crowds
Just like the river tide starts where it ends
On my blue carousel
Just another day

There's a sunrise in the distance
And it's all coming back to me now
I hear voices in the graveyard
Hey cat what's that all about
Love and joy
