

Minnewaska

Widowspeak

I know where to go, where to go
Where we can be alone, alone
On the shores of lake minnewaska

When the city starts to break
We'll leave it all away
On the shores of lake minnewaska

And we can't go home
Cause there's nothing left there

How would we go on?
Everything is gone, is gone
But the shores of lake minnewaska

It doesn't feel fair, won't you meet me there
On the shores of lake minnewaska

If we are afraid, afraid
It's ok to be afraid

I know where to go, where to go
Where we can be alone, alone
On the shores of lake minnewaska
