

Slow Dance

Widowspeak

Slow dance in the spotlight
Just quarter of midnight, you checked the time
All of those adoring eyes
On you
The dance ends
And you go home to sleep
The moment was never yours to keep
When you wake, the feeling will be gone
The world has moved on
But you know you were loved

Let that be enough
Let that be enough

Ride off into the sunset
Find it out
If you haven't yet
Words are going to fail you
But good love never will

Later on when you're falling asleep
As ready as you're ever gonna be
For the last time, dreaming of that night
Dancing in the light of their eyes

Let that be enough
Let that be enough

Slow dance in the spotlight
Just quarter of midnight, you checked the time
All of those adoring eyes
On you
