

Baby please don't test me, baby I need it
Lost myself I'm pale, went green
Spent my, ayy, hol' up

Ayy, please don't test me, baby I need it
Lost myself, I'm pale, went green
Spent my wealth on your dreams just to see this
You a perfect picture painted vivid, I see it
Please don't test me, baby I need it
Lost myself, I'm pale, went green
Spent my wealth on your dreams just to see this

Okay, flip right through the pages, you though I would make it
Numb myself, don't know my worth, I move slow like the matrix
Wait, now we back to basics
Wipe blood up off my pavement
Death before dishonor, on my brothers, I would change shit
Okay, yeah, I'm paranoid
Hear a voice inside my head, that ain't no random noise
Full of clips inside my head, I keep it mandatory
Battle tip, okay, gon' act up, stacked up
I'm on my money makin' Mitch shit
Rico's come my way, I sent that dead man like a hit list
No wish shit, could trick this
No fiction, could witness
I'm dead through the day
On my way, I'm sending friction
Pressure on my mind, that's all the time
Enemies come get this

Okay, please don't test me, baby I need it
Lost myself, I'm pale, went green
Spent my wealth on your dreams just to see this
You a perfect picture painted vivid, I see it

Don't love myself
Don't trust myself
Don't judge myself
Drugs make me mad
Don't love myself
Don't trust myself
Don't judge myself
Drugs make me mad

Okay, blue perc', can't pop that
Drank up, I drop that
You know, I got that
Hol' up, hol' up, hol' up, okay
Okay, blue perc, can't pop that
Drank up, I drop that
Drank up, I drop that
Wait, yeah, okay, wait, yeah, I

I'm lost with the demons, while I'm shcemin'
Ridin' through my wave, lil' baby what you needin'?
Fixin' all your drugs problems, baby you could see this Judge me if you need this
Please me if you need it

Ayy, please don't test me, baby I need it
