

High n Dry

Wig Wam

You left me cold but baby now you're back
For a piece of the pudding
Like a kittie cat
But your claws are too sharp to be charming

You were the one till babe you kicked me out
And left my heart in the gutter
No matter what you've got
It's not enough for my cream and my butter

It's way too late
To regret and change
The hands of fate
Karma's such a bitch
Life's been fine
From the day you left me
High N Dry

Now don't you hate
To admit you made a
Bad mistake
Karma's such a bitch
What a ride
Since the day you left me
High N Dry

Crashed and burned but baby here I am
On the top of the ladder
What a sweet revenge
For all that it matters

When you went chasing that pot of gold
And turned your back to everything you loved
For a taste of the glamour
Well that's when I found her

It's way too late
To regret and change
The hands of fate
Karma's such a bitch
Life's been fine
From the day you left me
High N Dry

Now don't you hate
To admit you made a
Bad mistake
Karma's such a bitch
What a ride
Since the day you left me
High N Dry

I was way too late
To regret and change
The hands of fate
Karma's such a bitch
Life's been fine

From the day you left me
High N Dry

It's way too late
To regret and change
The hands of fate
Karma's such a bitch
Life's been fine
From the day you left me
High N Dry

Now don't you hate
To admit you made a
Bad mistake
Karma's such a bitch
What a ride
Since the day you left me
High N Dry

It's way too late
To regret and change
The hands of fate
Karma's such a bitch
Life's been fine
From the day you left me
High N Dry

Now don't you hate
To admit you made a
Bad mistake
Karma's such a bitch
What a ride
Since the day you left me
High N Dry
