

Tides Will Turn

Wig Wam

Time goes by
A change is in the air
Dark the sky
The path of in despair
Yesterday's gone but a tomorrow at dawn
A light of hope for me to come

Tides will turn
I'll raise the stakes and take the fall
Flames will burn
I'll tear it all apart
No fear of endings
I'm taking my chance from the start
That's why I have a change of heart

One is love
The one you'll be there for
High above
One you'll protect from war
But yesterday's gone, it doesn't matter no more
There'll be a change for me to come

Tides will turn
I'll raise the stakes and take the fall
Flames will burn
I'll tear it all apart
No fear of endings
I'm taking my chance from the start
That's why I have a change of heart

Tides will turn
I'll raise the stakes and take the fall
Flames will burn
I'll tear it all apart
Tides will turn
I'm breaking through, still standing tall
Flames will burn

Tides will turn
I just can't take no, I just can't take no more
Flames will burn
I'm headed out the door
Tides will turn
Flames will burn
