Yerrr
Yerrrrr
I'm the Dewey Cox of this shit ya heard

You ain't never made a single sacrifice in your life
Everything you do it has a price, but I have to write
That's for me
You don't have to like
You don't have to see
Turn your head, you concerned with checks
Man I work for free
Yeah I work for free to earn cheese for the long haul
It don't make sense to you it work for me and my long balls
Let em be
Yeah this shit been years in the making
And I've feared and I've teared in the making
But I'm here
I spent years doing this so it's cheers to the kid
You still hear my influence in this shit
You ain't hear?
They ain't fluent but they knew it what I spit
Yeah they knew I'm going through it like a script
Ain't it clear. Ain't it clear?

Turn that page
Know you wanna turn that page
Turn that pain to pay, ay
You ain't gotta hurt today, nay
Look at all the work you made
Prey, that's all they ass is
Pray, that's all they ass did
Stay they ass in the crib, ay
They ain't gonna get it this year
Turn that page

Hey Mann!

I did it for the freaks
Did it for the freaks man
Did it for the freaks
Did it for the city
Did it for the city
Did it for the kids in it yeah that didn't wanna speak
Did it for the peaks
Did it for the lows
Did it for the heat flows
Did it for the shows
Ain't gonna lie did it for the dough

Y'all used to be Stans
Now you on your feet can't stand
Still trying to call yourself a man
Man that's crap
And I seen it on the gram
Man that's a scheme
It don't mean what it mean
Hunned thousand on a screen

It ain't what it seem
Man what's that?
Little baby being burped man
We gotta get to work
No days off so we gotta get to church
Ain't trying to hit hell
But I don't want help
Don't do it for the perks
Gotta do it myself
Do it cause it worth
Everything single verse
That I lay down till I lay down
Slain or old age either way a crown
On my head
Parade me all the way Uptown when I'm dead
What I said?
Did it for the freaks man did it for the freaks

I did it for the freaks
Did it for the city
