Wiki

Uh
Nah, nah
Shit, shit, shit, shit, shit
Shit, shit, shit, shit, shit
Yeah, look, uh

I be with Navy Blue, you can call me Baby Blue or Forrest Green
It's what you prefer, neither bother me
Made a new perfume in my laboratory where I store my weed
Pour forties out in every mortuary or morgue I be
But there's more to me
I do it for the glory, for the lordy, do it for the cream
'Cause ain't no story free
Order me to be ordinary, get disorderly
The shit I say ordinarily, you can't afford to see
Gave an arm and knee, but they ain't getting one more part of me
Bombarded me, they ain't say pardon me, obviously Weren't taught right, don't talk the way that they oughta be Audibly so I can hear what they offering
Translate your thought to speech
Be cautionary 'fore you let it off its leash

See, when I make a remark, I remark remarkably Uh, uh, I remark rem- uh, look
See, when I make a remark, I remark remarkably (Fuck)
Don't start with me
Ain't got the heart to spark with me
Barking out your face, but talk is cheap
When I make a remark, remark remarkably (This gonna be the hook, I'm gonna f ill it in)
When I make a remark, remark-

The original orator, R-rated
Or your savior, but, shit, don't ask for more favors
Already brought the war report to your long paper
So y'all can take notes while I make jokes, blaze up paper (Uh)
Filled with a whole bunch of shake (Shake)
That my old buddy left on my coffee table by mistake
My face been on all types of coffee tables by the way
The kid been in print, shit, since high school we had some fame
The type I gained, not the type that got a time frame
Never wanted the type of fame where I can't ride the train
But see me spitting, three teeth missing, could make it out a mile away
I take a pile of zaza and walk a hundred miles a day
Downtown to Brooklyn, back uptown to where my mama stay
Then all the way downtown to mine where my baby mama stay
Then watch the drama play out like a soap opera, ayy
Baby, cool it down before I'm forced to walk away
You wanna see me dip or wanna see the love doctor stay?
I know you want the latter
And if my data's correct, that ass been getting fatter
I swear she's getting badder

Uh, uh, look, look, no, don't start with me
Look, look, look
Don't start with me, ain't got the heart to, to spark with me
Barking out your face, but talk is cheap

When I make a remark, remark remarkably
