

Losing Interest

Wilco

Well, I know I haven't paid my dues
And I've poured out all my love in vain
But if you haven't heard the news
Well, I'm losing interest in playing the blues

I'm still shaking, but I can't dust my broom
And my arm grows numb while I strum
And just when I thought there was nothing left to lose
Well, I'm losing interest in playing the blues

My money's gone, my car keys too
My baby's gone and so are you
Then I'm losing interest in playing the blues

Well, the sun shines wherever my children are
And my blood runs deep in their hearts
And if they should ever happen to find you
Please don't let them lose interest in playing the blues

Please don't let them lose interest in playing the blues
