

Throw Down Your Guns

Wild Belle

Throw down your guns, throw down your guns
In the name of love, I put my hands up

Is this some fucked-up situation?
I'm feeling like a mental patient
Tell me why my heart can't stop misbehaving
Gambling won't ever save me
I run around with the wrong men for days
I'm looking for all that it takes to get wasted

Give me a hit of amnesia
So that I can forget that I need you
Give me morphine to make it much easier

Throw down your guns, throw down your guns
In the name of love, I put my hands up
Throw down your guns, throw down your guns
In the name of love, I put my hands up
Nobody move, nobody get hurt
Nobody move, nobody get hurt
Throw down your guns, throw down your guns
In the name of love, I put my hands up

I'll give 'em another dimension
I miss you so much, I'd rather be dead
Baby, take me on a ride up to heaven
I had you deep in my lungs
You took the breath out of me all at once
And I'm sorry for all that I've done

Give me amnesia
So I can forget I need you
Take my morphine
I don't wanna hurt no more, babe
I don't wanna hurt no more, babe

Throw down your guns, throw down your guns
In the name of love, I put my hands up
Throw down your guns, throw down your guns
In the name of love, I put my hands up
Nobody move, nobody get hurt
Nobody move, nobody get hurt
Throw down your guns, throw down your guns
In the name of love, I put my hands up

Nobody move, nobody get hurt
Nobody move, nobody get hurt
Nobody move, nobody get hurt
Nobody move, nobody get hurt

Throw down your guns, throw down your guns
In the name of love, I put my hands up
Throw down your guns, throw down your guns
In the name of love, I put my hands up
Nobody move, nobody get hurt
Nobody move, nobody get hurt
Throw down your guns, throw down your guns

In the name of love, I put my hands up
