

Look At Her Dance

Wild Cherry

Oh, look at her dance, look at her dance
Now watch that lady move across the floor
Hey, look at her dance, look at her dance
When she gets through, then she'll come back for more

Yeah, look at her dance, look at her dance
Won't you look at her dance? Take a glance
Look at her dance, look at her dance
Won't you look at her dance? Look at her dance
Yeah

Ah, feel the backbeat, keep that spotlight low
People, work it out, let your body heat grow
We're getting higher, better play that music loud
Look through the haze, there's just one face in the crowd

Come with me, man
See what I mean, man, yeah
Look at that

Yeah, look at her dance, look at her dance
Now watch that lady move across the floor
Oh, look at her dance, look at her dance
When she gets through, then she'll come back for more

Hey, look at her dance, look at her dance
Won't you look at her dance? Take a glance
Look at her dance, look at her dance
Won't you look at her dance? Look at her dance
Yeah

Whoa, her body's moving like a hurricane
Got to stick around, see her do it again
Well, something happens when they play her rock and roll
How can one woman possess so much soul?

I wanna see, man
If she'll dance with me, man, yeah

Oh, look at her dance, look at her dance
Now watch that lady move across the floor
Oh, look at her dance, look at her dance
When she gets through, then she'll come back for more

Hey, look at her dance, look at her dance
Won't you look at her dance? Take a glance
Look at her dance, whoa, look at her dance
Won't you look at her dance? Look at her dance

Get on it
Check it out
Watch out

Oh, look at her dance, look at her dance
Now watch that lady move across the floor
Look at her dance, look at her dance
When she gets through, then she'll come back for more, yeah

Look at her dance, look at her dance
Won't you look at her dance? Take a glance
Look at her dance, look at her dance
Won't you look at her dance? Look at her dance
Yeah
Oh, I wanna dance

Hey, look at her dance, look at her dance
Now watch that lady move across the floor
