Wild Child

You found another, I know
You found another
Bet you, she's gorgeous, babe
New day, new lover, oh no
New day, new lover
Soon as I walked away

And they said, there goes another one
You burn my bed
I really, really like to love you

I guess I'm always bending backwards
Tryna keep you around
And I know I could do better babe, better babe
I won't ask, I can't be too forward, no

It's getting heavy, I know
It's getting heavy
So let's take a minute
I wasn't ready, you know
I wasn't ready
My heart wasn't in it, yeah

And they said, there goes another one
You burn my bed
I really, really like to love you
There goes another one
You burn my bed
I really, really like to love you, oh

I guess I'm always bending backwards
Tryna keep you around
And I know I could do better babe, better babe
I won't ask, I can't be too forward, no, oh

So I'll be right there every long night drive
Just as long as you swear you'll keep me alive
Wasting days, keeping warm at night 'til I find me another guy

I guess I'm always bending backwards
Tryna keep you around
And I know I could do better babe, better babe
I won't ask, I can't be too forward, no, oh
I guess I'm always bending backwards
Tryna keep you around, ooh

And I said, there goes another one, too bad (goes another one)
There goes another one, too bad
And I said, there goes another one too bad
My bad, I really, really like to love you
Said I really, really like to love you, yeah
Yeah
Yeah
