

Dear John

Wild Child

That's enough think it's over
I heard this story
This story too many times
Think it's love just grown colder
I had to leave you but I really need you tonight
You called me after a few drinks
Said she don't love you
No she don't love you at all
Now I should pick up the pieces
Like it just might be
Like it might be me after all

I can feel you gunning for me
Still I don't want you back
Shit I don't want you back now
I can feel you gunning for me
Still I don't want you back
Shit I don't want you back now

You call me baby forever
Like you've been waiting
Like you've been waiting on me
But you can't seem to forget her
She wants you back now
Baby now that's your cue to leave
Just wait til still gets her way boy
She'll do a number
She'll do a number on you
You probably think I'll be waiting
Like I got nothing
Like I got nothing to do

I can feel you gunning for me
Still I don't want you back
Shit I don't want you back now
I can feel you gunning for me
Still I don't want you back
Shit I don't want you back now

Baby it's time to move on
I said goodbye now
I'll leave your keys by the door
I thought that you were the one
But I can see now
And I don't want you back anymore

I can feel you gunning for me
Still I don't want you back
Shit I don't want you back now
I can feel you gunning for me
Still I don't want you back
Shit I don't want you back now

I can feel you gunning for me
Still I don't want you back
Shit I don't want you back now
I can feel you gunning for me

Still I don't want you back
Shit I don't want you back now
