

Eggshells

Wild Child

Say you want better
You poke fun of holes in my sweater babe
But who did you really expect me to be
I can see through you
I try everyway to undo you boy
Before California takes you from me

Slow down slow down
Take it from the beginning
I'm here why are you still around

I could keep digging
Provide all the things that you're missing boy
But why should I worry that I'm not enough
Say you don't like me
Enough to stand up and just fight me boy
Then we will both know that it's time to give up

If I could just tell you
I've fallen in more than I care to now
It's strange so afraid I might be in love

Slow down slow down
Take it from the beginning
I'm here why are you still around

There's no missing piece
No my other half
I could lose it all
Keep one photograph
Oh if you needed me I'd give you all I have

Slow down slow down
Take it from the beginning
I'm here why are you still around
Slow down Slow down
Take it from the beginning now
I'm here why are you still around
