

Good Luck

Wild Child

Oh high above me looking down
I can't see the solid ground
Guess I lost my way
In other words I'm stuck

Oh all the walls are closing in
I'm still crawling in this skin
But now I know the cure
Just have to learn that I'm enough

So let's go our separate ways
And I'll see you again some day
I'm sorry for all of the mess I made
I never meant to fall in love

I can't see past this moment
Too many words unspoken
Call it tough love
Good luck

Oh I feel crazy when it's cold
Still I'm much too proud to fold
When I'm feeling small
It's hard for me to trust
Oh I'm afraid I'm losing sleep
Without love I'm incomplete
But wait I have it all
I'm stronger than I was

So let's go our separate ways
And I'll see you again some day
I'm sorry for all of the mess I made
I never meant to fall in love

I can't see past this moment
Too many words unspoken
Guess it's tough love
Good luck

I can't see past this moment
Too many words unspoken
Call it tough love
Good luck

So let's go our separate ways
And I'll see you again some day
So let's go our separate ways
And I'll see you again some day
So let's go our separate ways
And I'll see you again some day

I'm sorry for all of the mess I made
I never meant to fall in love
I can't see past this moment
Too many words unspoken
Call it tough love
Good luck

I can't see past this moment
Too many words unspoken
Call it tough love
Good luck
Good luck
Good luck
