

Goodbye Goodnight

Wild Child

You draw
With fingers on the wall
All of the places you'd rather be

I smile
Promise that I'll spend some time alone
Cause I know you're losing sleep

Hoping that you're doing well
Escape your head, a living hell
I'm losing my damn mind but I'm alright
Darling when I say it's fine
I'll see you at some other time
Don't want to say goodbye I'll say goodnight

Sometimes
This simple kind of love becomes a crutch
It's easy living slow
There's a fine line
I start to think of you too much
Let me in I'll let you go
We'll try
Not to read each other like a book
Let's just share another smoke

Hoping that you're doing well
Escape your head, a living hell
I'm losing my damn mind but I'm alright
Darling when I say it's fine
I'll see you at some other time
Don't want to say goodbye I'll say goodnight

Tell it like it is
I get the feeling that I might have let you in
Tell it like it is
I get the feeling that I might have let you in

We'll try
To pass the time
Denying all the facts
Maybe soon we'll be complete

Hoping that you're doing well
Escape your head, a living hell
I'm losing my damn mind but I'm alright
Darling when I say it's fine
I'll see you at some other time
Don't want to say goodbye I'll say goodnight
Darling when I say it's fine
I'll see you at some other time
Don't want to say goodbye I'll say goodnight
