

Left Behind

Wild Child

We're never who we think we are
Cause we were born to change our minds
Surprised that we don't give a damn
About the friends we left behind

Oh, born to change your mind
So we pick back up and skip ahead
Unaware we're running blind

Oh, born to change your mind

So who can always tell the truth
When you're trying to be kind
Afraid to hurt the ones we love
When we were born to change our minds

Oh, born to change your mind
So we pick back up and skip ahead
Unaware we're running blind

Can't live your days like it's your last
Head struck down and runnin' fast
Makin' up for things you lack
The stories and the games

So fill your days with love and booze
Careful with the girl you choose
Those friends you think you'll never lose
Will soon forget your name

Oh, born to change your mind

So who can say it's all the same
When shit keeps changing everyday
We'll fix it up and find a way
To fall in love again
We'll meet someone to call a friend
Find yourself in arms again
Until one day you wake in bed
Oh, you're bound to change your mind

Oh, born to change your mind

We're never who we think we are
Cause we were born to change our minds
Surprised that we don't give a damn
About the friends we left behind

Oh, born to change your mind
So we pick back up and skip ahead
Unaware we're running blind

Oh, born to change your mind
