

Speak

Wild Child

Slow down
You always say the wrong thing
Boy, I know you're preaching
There's no one here to save
Try me
Maybe I could have the answer
If only you would hear it
Instead of digging your own grave

Everything I am
Everything I have
I'd give it all away

Speak
Something that you need
You know I'll always love you
Won't be unkind
Easy, worried mind
I'm always gonna love you
Oh, you're afraid
'Cause I know your wicked ways
But I'm always gonna love you
Oh, speak
Something that you need
You know I'll always love you

Slow down
Look at where you are now
Girl, you're sitting pretty
Don't know if you could tell
Stay in bed
Oh, don't you know it's your town
There's no one here against you
We're all under your spell

Everything I am
Everything I have
I'd give it all away

Speak
Something that you need
You know I'll always love you
Won't be unkind
Easy, worried mind
I'm always gonna love you
Oh, you're afraid
But I know your wicked ways
And I'm always gonna love you
Oh, you speak
Something that you need
You know I'll always love you
I'm always gonna love you

You're so tired of keeping up
You're worried 'bout what you could lose
Before it's even gone
And all the while you're missing out

Oh, you [?]
Just facing face
Like you just don't belong

Something that you need
You know I'll always love you
Won't be unkind
Easy, worried mind
'Cause I know your wicked ways
But I'm always gonna love you
Something that you need
You know I'll always love you

Speak
Something that you need
I'm always gonna love you
Speak
Something that you need
You know I'll always love you
Oh, speak
Something that you need
You know I'll always love you
