

Alex

Wild Nothing

I'm drifting out to the valley
I can't explain what I've seen
Is there anyone to meet me?
Is there anyone at all?
I see you standing in the hallway
Angels make their rounds
If you thought that I could see them
Would my body fail me now?

Dust me off, hold me closer
It's not so hard to believe
All the voices you've been hearing
Are the ones that help me breathe
Am I a saint or a liar?
You held my palm to the flame
I only told you what you wanted
I only told you what you wanted

Don't let me go
Don't let me go

Am I a saint or a liar?
It's not so hard to believe
Am I a saint or a liar?
It's not so hard to believe
It's not so hard to believe
