

Begin Again

Wild Nothing

You sound so safe in a protective state
At least you're free from all those things you've made

I'm just shaking my head again (begin again)
All those in defense are lifting in (begin again)
God is beyond dedication
'Cause the Devil's at the door

The time has come to lock your door for America
I'd love to help, but I've sold myself to America
Now you fly that flight again (begin again)
Blocking the passing 'cause again (begin again)
Skill your counts like a millionaire (begin again)
The truth is what you say

I'm just shaking my head again (begin again)
All those fences are lifting in (begin again)
God is beyond dedication
'Cause the Devil's at the door

Strained from the lyrics of the messages (begin again)
Promise they just want the best for us (begin again)
Believing in us don't mean every word (begin again)
Nobody has to know

(Begin again)
