

Foyer

Wild Nothing

Clearing a space for you, pull you to my chest
Everything in it's place, waiting for you to get dressed
They say it gets easier, is it true?
Spiral down the sink drain into you

How can I be sure of it?
Memorize the taste of it

Refill your shopping cart, ice to numb the pain
Oranges and vitamins, change you cannot take

View from the vanity, is that you?
Wrapped up in the bed sheets, is that you?

How can I be sure of it?
Memorize the taste of it

Recall the taste of it
It's all I ever do
Recall the taste of it
It's all I ever do
Recall the taste of it
