

There's something deep inside
It's nearly forgotten
There's something buried so far
That I can't control it

The music rushes in my head
Coursing out to my hands
I never thought we'd meet again
But here I am

Heart full, toes bleeding

The crowd a blur before my face
A shadow cast upon the lake
My arms stretched out, spinning in place
I used to walk on water

There's something deep inside
Where everyone is a stranger
And I'm so close I can taste it
Oh, don't let me waste this

The music rushes in my head
Coursing out to my hands
I never thought we'd meet again
But here I am

The crowd a blur before my face
A shadow cast upon the lake
My arms stretched out, spinning in place
I used to walk on water

I used to walk on water
I used to walk on water

The crowd a blur before my face
A shadow cast upon the lake
My arms stretched out, spinning in place
I used to walk on water
