

Nothin' At All

Wild Party

You and me
Sippin' on some coffee
In the, Texas heat
We can't complain about anything
Here we come

We feel the light in wild color
We just decided not to fight with each other
We got it right now we got it all
We thought we knew it we knew nothin' at all

All we need's
To be what we ought to be
And it, don't cost a thing
We wont be running from anything
Here we come

We feel the light in wild color
We just decided not to fight with each other
We got it right now we got it all
We thought we knew it we knew nothin' at all

Now that we know, we knew nothin' at all

Honestly
You can be who you wanna be
Always a chance to start, to hit your mark
Do what you can to just let it be
And be done

We feel alive in wild color
We just decided not to fight eachother
We got it right now we got it all
We thought we knew it we knew nothin' at all
We feel the light in wild color
We just decided not to fight fight fight
We got it right now we got it all
We thought we knew it we knew nothin' at all

(Now that we know, we knew nothin' at all)
We knew nothin' at all
We knew nothin' at all
(Now that we know, we knew nothin' at all)
We know nothin' at all
